Styrofoam is an issue!

The cigarette butts are so wonderfully down in number!! It's looking great! Styrofoam is still the challenging one but overall our little beach is looking wonderful and ready for summertime! ;)

There appear to be more trash cans but not enough recycling. It would be nice to have a recycling container next to the trash can, otherwise

I believe that people will just dump everything into the trash container. As you can see, I am unsure how to categorize some items which are picked up. If you have suggestions for categories for those items listed under "unusual" we would welcome them
