Comments / Recommendations:

(notes taken directly from Data Collection Sheets)

Most trash at El Portal storm drain area & under railroad bridge/There were thousands of small bits of Styrofoam. We collected pieces sized 1" or greater, but it was impossible to pick up individual foam cells. Note: also participating were Isobel Pelham, Samuel Pelham, Cameron Pelham, Malcom Pelham, Adam Schrab/Lots of styfoam!! (throw your cups away) ☺/We had a big wall of sand so TONS of stuff was covered up, I think. We didn't get nearly as many cigarettes as we usually do! ☺/ Really pretty clean down there ☺ / Happy New Year! / Maybe we need to emphasize to public that one Styrofoam cup becomes 10 – 100's pieces of individualized litter when they break up. Cig butts are bad, certainly, but they do not usually break up to multiple pieces./ The beach is noticeably dirtier since the heavy rains / Wow, it gets really bad here after a downpour of rain. Tons of wood, branches and other debris that we let the city take care of / Bottles – 20
